

Peace & Disarmament: Interfaith Perspectives

Sunday, April 17, 3 to 5 pm

Islamic Center of Nevada

4730 East Desert Inn Road, Las Vegas 89121

The community of religions must not be seen as neutral on issues related to war and peace. We are on the side of peace, and we stand against all acts that put the creation of God in danger, especially those acts associated with weapons of mass destruction.

To express its unambiguous support for movements of peace and disarmament, the interfaith community of Nevada is hosting this public forum. Though initiated by opponents of nuclear weapons, the hope is that the necessity for this discussion will bring people together.

Come, join in taking a stand for life, love and dignity.

Confirmed Presenters sharing from their lives, as informed by their respective faiths:

Aslam Abdullah, Masjid Imam and Executive Director
Islamic Society of Nevada, Las Vegas, NV

Johnnie Bobb, Chief
Western Shoshone National Council

Candace Ross, Priestess
Temple to Goddess Spirituality, Cactus Springs, NV

Robert "Bob" E. Stoeckig, Pastor
St. Andrew Catholic Community, Boulder City, NV

Mel Hecht, Retired Founding Rabbi
Temple Beth Am, Summerlin, NV

Reflection offerings from other faiths also pending.

Co-sponsored by Nevada Desert Experience, The Islamic Society of Nevada, Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service, Interfaith Council of Southern Nevada, and The Sekhmet Temple.
Contact Nevada Desert Experience to be added as a sponsor or with other questions.

Nevada Desert Experience
702-646-4814 info@NevadaDesertExperience.org
NevadaDesertExperience.org

Organizing Interfaith Resistance to Nuclear Weapons and War